LOCAL ATTORNEY GARNERS PRESTIGIOUS AWARD FROM AIOLC

The American Institute of Legal Counsel Announces the 2016 Award Recipients

The American Institute of Legal Counsel (AIOLC), an invitation only legal organization recognizing excellence of practitioners in their respective areas, has named R.J. Connelly III, Esquire one of AIOLC's 10 Best Estate Planning Attorneys. The American Institute of Legal Counsel is an impartial third-party attorney rating organization comprised of six divisions including Elder Law. To qualify for this honor, Attorney Connelly had to be nominated by the AIOLC board, clients and his peers, attained the highest degree of professional achievement in his field and have an impeccable client satisfaction rating.

"I am excited to receive this award," said Attorney Connelly, "and our staff deserves credit as well since we as a firm work exceedingly hard for our clients. It's a great accomplishment for our team."

Attorney Connelly has garnered multiple honors for his accomplishments in his practice of elder law most recently receiving the "Hero Award" from the Alliance for Better Long-Term Care for his "unselfish dedication and service in protecting the rights of seniors" and was selected for inclusion in the Who's Who 2017 Edition of the Top Attorneys of North America.

Attorney Connelly practices primarily in the field of elder law which involves Medicaid planning and asset protection advice for those individuals and their families who may be entering nursing homes and planning for the possibility of disability using powers of attorney for both health care and finances, estate tax planning, guardianship, probate and estate administration, preparation of wills, revocable and irrevocable trusts and special or supplemental needs trust. Special areas of practice include probate and trust litigation and fiduciary, wealth management and bookkeeping services.

Connelly Law Offices, Ltd. has offices in Mystic, Connecticut and Pawtucket, Rhode Island and is a member of the Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island Federal Bar Associations. He is designated a Certified Elder Law Attorney by the National Elder Law Foundation and is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys.
